Presenter

David Umstot is a Professional Civil Engineer with over 30 years of leadership experience as both a private sector practitioner and public sector owner. He is the co-founder of Umstot Project and Facilities Solutions which provides consultancy in delivering better projects, performance and results. In his career, he has also been responsible for facilities management, programme management, Lean enterprise, and sustainable practices and has delivered more than $2B in construction projects. David is a recognized subject matter expert in Lean Project Delivery, and is an associate faculty member in the San Diego State University College of Engineering. He has worked with over 50 international teams as a Lean practitioner and coach and is the co-author of a book on Lean Project Delivery scheduled for publication in January 2017.

Workshop

1. Lean Project Delivery (6pm – 7pm): David will frame the compelling “why” the Architectural, Engineering and Construction (AEC) industry needs to improve. He will share current industry trends, what they mean, and how they can be leveraged for better performance. He will also share via his firsthand experience as an owner and coach, the challenges teams typically encounter on their Lean journeys and how to prepare for these and organise for success. He will also focus on the importance of organisational culture and leadership in achieving operational excellence.
2. Feedback and Q&A (7pm): David will be available to answer any questions you may have regarding Lean Project Delivery, Lean tools, culture and leadership.
3. Future workshops on Lean Technology (7.30pm): e.g. Target Value Design, Last Planner® System, Lean Project Delivery workshop

Places are limited so RSVP; Friday 25th November.
