

Guided Carrauntoohil Ascent

In association with the Cork Young Engineers society

Date: Saturday, 26th October 2019

Time: 9:00am

Venue: Carrauntoohil

Fee: Kerry Climbing are providing guides, hence there will be a fee. The event is being sponsored by An Ríocht and The Cork branch of The Young Engineers Society and the fee is dependent on the number of attendees.

Organiser: This event is a joint endeavour between The Cork branch of The Young Engineers Society and An Ríocht. Kerry Climbing are providing guides and they have terms and conditions, please refer to their website for further information
<https://www.kerryclimbing.ie/>

The Kerry Climbing guides are very informative and will outline the history of the area and other interesting facts while bringing the group up at a steady pace.

Notes: Due to the Kerry Climbing guides, there are limits to the numbers of places. Please contact George McMahon by October 12th

An ascent of Corrán Tuathail is a tough challenge and requires a good basic level of fitness. Please refer to <https://www.kerryclimbing.ie/> if you need further information.
