

International Association of Hydrogeologists
Irish Group

GEOTECHNICAL

Annual Joint IAH/Geotechnical Society Lecture

Karst in hydrogeology and engineering

- Welcome and launch of the book Karst of Ireland – Landscape · Hydrogeology · Methods by David Drew. Koen Verbruggen (Geological Survey Ireland), Donal Daly and David Drew
- What has karst research ever done for us? Laurence Gill (Trinity College, Dublin)
- Road Design in Karst Landscapes: the M17/M18 Deirdre O'Hara (Barry Transportation), Esther Madden (Arup) and Les Brown (Arup)

Date and Time: Tuesday 15th January 2019, 6.00pm (Tea & Coffee from 5:30pm), followed by wine reception in the Annexe at the GSI

Venue: Geological Survey Ireland, Beggars Bush, Haddington Road, Dublin 4 D04 K7X4

All welcome

The two presentations will cover karst in hydrogeological studies and in engineering, and complement the broad reach of David Drew's book on the Karst of Ireland

Copies of the book will be available for purchase on the evening for €15.00 (normal price €20.00)

Upcoming IAH events in 2019:

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| February | Annual Burdon Lecture |
| March | IAH Technical Discussion Meeting – speakers TBC |
| April | 39 th Annual IAH (Irish Group) Conference |

Event contacts: IAH: Taly Hunter Williams (taly.hunterwilliams@gsi.ie) or Alasdair Pilmer (apilmer@gdgeo.com)
Engineers Ireland Geotechnical Society: Ciaran Reilly (Ciaran@ciaranreilly.ie)